“ To Lloyd, Karen and the rest of Earl's family our deepest sympathy. My apology for not attending Earl's service. Our families go back to Earl and my father developing a friendship 'down in the hole', the engine room of the USS Hamner shortly after World War II. As the story goes, Earl and Dad on leave or shortly after their discharges met in Cold Spring, when Earl was introduced to Betty Meyer, his bride to be (a school friend of my mother and dad) He was a true friend to my parents which our family deeply appreciated. Here are a few remembrances: visiting the Danzeisens when they first lived in St. Cloud; baking ranch cookies with Betty as a Cub Scout; watching Earl putting the finishing touches on a vehicle at his body shop and he being by surrogate father--bowling with me in a father-son tournament at St. Boniface Lanes. I always enjoyed the conversations with him. He was a good listener who would give you straight and thoughtful answers. He also had a dry sense of humor that would sneak out of him once in a while! Earl was a good man who lived a long life. The Danzeisen family will carry on his legacy. I will miss him!

“ So sorry to hear of Great Uncle Earl's passing. I will always have fond memories of times visiting with him and your family. So special how he always made coming to the Packard family reunion in Canada, every five years, a priority. Loved getting his phone calls. Wish I could have seen him one more time. Our sincere sympathy to all. He will be missed.
