“ I was very fortunate to be a friend of Ole Jessen Klicksbull while serving in the US Marine Corps while at Marine Corps Recruit Depot in Parris Island South Carolina in 1971.

My condolences to the Family & his many Friends & associates!

I unfortunately did not try to keep in touch with Marines I served with, because of the negative attitude the civilian population had for Military that served in VietNam.

I only knew him for a short time, but was impressed with him, the way he carried himself & I knew he would go far in life, as I believed he did!

Sorry for your loss,,,,,

“ I had the pleasure of having Ole as a teacher when I was an exchange student at Rocori 1982-83. I really enjoyed his geography and social science classes. He was an excellent teacher.

It was also so nice to meet Ole and you, Carol, when I was back in Cold Spring 1990. I also very much appreciated the Christmas cards I received from you and Ole for many years. I'm so sorry for your loss, Carol. My deepest sympathy.

I'm thinking about you and sending warm hugs from Sweden.

“ I was invited to Mr and Mrs Klixbull's house when I became friends with their niece Iben, a visiting exchange student from Denmark. It was the first time I had a truly European-style dinner where we sat at the table for a long time and discussed ideas. I remember Mr Klixbull talking about his dogs, and how he wished he could let them run free and taste exhilarating freedom for just a moment. I remember a beautiful desk and art on the walls. I thank this man for treating an unknown girl like an adult and all the other wonderful things I just read about. I hope for peace for his family and friends.

“ Ole was a very special person, his dedication to preparing for the worst and helping those in need will be missed by many. He holds a special place in my heart with many memories- including his smile and the extra time he provided sharing his wisdom and knowledge of past experiences. He provided a stepping stone through his Red Cross liaison duties to our regional volunteers. Rest in peace Ole'.

“ I had the honor of meeting and getting to know Ole through my dear friend Carol. There are some people who hold a "greatness" about them and Ole was one of them. He was a great leader, a great thinker and a great teacher. I felt his vital involvement in life, be it grapes or organizations, and of course people. Thank you Ole, for all you gave us, you will be missed.

“ Ole was a true gentleman in every sense of the word. I enjoyed our many discussions we had regarding world events in the teacher's lounge at ROCORI High School. I had the utmost respect for him, and for the love he had for his country.

Rest easy, Ole-- job well done, sir.
