“ I first met Aggie at 14 when Mom, Dad and I would go to Jerry's most Saturday nights. Mom and Dad were friends with Sylvester and Aggie and I continued seeing them around the rest of my life. She was such a nice person and ALWAYS supportive of whatever I did. I would visit her when I could over the years and we called each other from time to time. What a full life and now Sylvester and Aggie are together again! God bless her memory!

Aggie was certainly one of our favorite residents of Assumption Benedictine Community in Cold Spring. Agnes was a woman of strong faith & firm conviction. I enjoyed meeting her almost every morning at breakfast where I always complimented her on her perfectly beautiful hair.....that usually brought a broad smile to her face! We can thank Aggie for the many gifts and talents she shared with others right into her 100th year here among us. My guess is that she is already cooking in God's kitchen for the whole heavenly banquet! Rest in peace, dear Aggie!! Fr. Tom
