“ Dear Cousins,

My thoughts and prayers for your comfort upon the loss of your dear, dear father. Mark and I will remember Uncle Al as a kind and humble soul who exuded wisdom and passion in his conversation. He certainly loved the Lord and has been reunited with Aunt Rosie, Anita, and Tamara. Their joy at receiving him must surpass by measure the sense of loss that you feel now. His love lives on in all of you. May you find consolation in your most treasured memories. - Rita and Mark James

Our thoughts and prayers are with Al's family. Al was our neighbor for over thirty years. His love for his family and his Lord was so evident in our visits with him. His wisdom and passion for others will be missed. We will miss his smile and visits, our dear neighbor. God Bless Al's family, Maynard and Sandi Pick
