“ I've known you for a long time. Your daughter will always and forever be my best friend. Every time I came to visit you, you always made sure I left with something you made to eat. You will forever remain in my heart and the memories spent with you will last with me and your family forever. I will never forget you and that time you yelled at me to shut up along time ago, we laughed about that together. It was such a pleasure to know you Yoneko! Your smile touched a lot of lives. You will live on in our hearts forever. May God welcome you with open arms.

“ It is a blessing to have Ana as neighbor. She supported me with prayer and even with her backache, she brought many of her delicious meals over. Which i tried to reciprocate with my smoked venison and fish.. rest in peace , Ana , u are free of the pains of this world..

BS

I remember when you brought her home. I was in awe! I thought she was so brave to move to a different country to be with the love of her life. She could speak 4 languages and was so very talented. But most of all, she was so sweet. We loved her and we love you. Barb Smeester
