“ I enjoyed corresponding with Bonnie for many years. We would meet in Cold Spring or down in the cities to get together for lunch or to do rubber stamping, often with our kids. I just found out when I attempted to find an address as we had lost contact over the past few years. What a shock! And a great loss. My heart is so heavy - I wondered why I hadn't heard from her. PLEASE SOMEONE CONTACT ME. Virginia McGaffey <sup>a</sup>formerly of Bloomington): 5500 Boone Ave, N. Apt 111, New Hope, MN 55428. My love and prayers are with you!

“ Warren, Kari, Geri and Lana - my deepest sympathies to you and your families. I have not seen you mom for quite a few years but wrote every Christmas. Your mother loved you children so very much. I use to spend a lot of times at your house in Cold Spring. Even took you to your grandmother's at one point. If there is anything you need please give me a call. You will be in my thought and prayers, always. Donna

“ George, Warren, Kari, Jeri, Lana, Scott, Eric
We are so sorry to hear of your loss. She and my mom, Mary Schmidt, wrote often and it was so wonderful to keep up with your family via the many many letters she wrote. You could just see the smile on her face and how proud she was of you and her grandchildren as we read the letters. She was such a great friend to my mom and will truly be missed by the entire Ron Schmidt family!
