“ My mind has been like a movie reel looping all my memories of Brian since we met last October ... from the hug he gave me when I arrived to the breakfast he made me when I left. One of my favorites was when Brian drove me around to look at deer the day before I left. I will never forget how happy and excited we were talking about them and seeing them. I always thought we'd do it again. I love you guys and I am praying for your peace and comfort daily. It was such a joy to have met Brian and I can't wait for Heaven.
