“ To the Family: I am so sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is never an easy matter for any of us to cope with, but we do have the assurance of our Heavenly Father that he will comfort us in all our tribulations. (Psalms 55:22) Death was never a part of the Creator's purpose for mankind, so, he has furnished a guarantee by means of his Son, Christ Jesus, that we will see our loved ones again. (Acts 24:15; John 5:28) I pray that you may draw comfort from these words.

“ I'm sorry I could not attend the wake or funeral. Please know that my and my family's thoughts and prayers are with all of you. I have fond memories of Uncle Ray and Aunt Cele at all those 4th of July reunions on the farm. I wonder if they have cap guns in heaven. Gods peace be with you.

“ I am so sorry that I can not make it to the funeral, but my prayers and thoughts are with you. H.O.P.E. is How Our Pilgimage Eclipses. Being absent from the body is being present with the Lord. Your mom and dad are now together with the Lord. May God's spirit unite and comfort you in this knowledge.

“ It was always such a pleasure to see both Ray and Cele whenever we went to Koinonia. They were always so full of joy that they found in serving others for Jesus. They are truely going to be missed.

“ Cele was a wonderfully wise woman! Her smile and her sense of humor could light up the whole room. She had a wonderful spirit of hospitality and just thinking about her brings a smile to my face and a feeling of deep inner joy. How she and Ray must be rejoicing together, free from pain, worry, and fear. May the angels welcome her into paradise!! Blessings of peace, ease, and comfort to all of you who love Cele...

“ Cele was a delightful person filled with much faith. I enjoyed working on Koinonia with her for many years. I'm sure Ray and Ceil are enjoying the company of each other.

“ When I think of Cele, I just laugh because she and I would laugh together so much....there aren't alot of people around who know how to just giggle and laugh, Cele did....I know it's sad for the family to lose a MOM, but Cele did it right---she lived hard, and she went home to Ray very graciously, no fooling around for her, she just did it....Happy Days Cele---give Ray a big hug for me--love you boh so much!!!!

“ I had a chance to get to know both Ray and Cele a little bit through the Koinonia program. Their humor and their graciousness stuck with me, and I smile whenever I think Of them. I cannot think of one without the other.

I hope you will smile whenever you remember the memories you have, and the people they touched.
