“ Sending big hugs and condolences on the loss of Aunt Clara. I have many fond memories of time spent with you and Uncle Norb. I remember big Schueller family Christmas parties and lots of good food (and fish....always loved when you sent us home with a carton of frozen fish to enjoy later). Great summer memories with you include evening rides around the lake on a pontoon boat with the family. Rest in peace, Aunt Clara. You are loved and missed by many!

“ I worked with Clara at Assumption Nursing Home in the late 90s. She was a great mentor who became a dear friend. She was never without a smile, especially when she talked about Norb and her family. She left many great memories for all who loved her to cherish. Jan Nierenhausen
