“ I am so sad to hear of Collette’s passing. She was a beautiful woman in body, mind, and spirit. She was a second mom to all us silly girls in high school and I am a better person today from her influences of kindness, love, laughter and humor. Both Collette and Dave were the kindest, good-hearted, and most loving people. I truly cherish my fond memories with the Reisinger family...dancing the polka and waltz on weekends at all the dance halls, get-togethers at the house, and shower dances and weddings. They are together again and I can almost see them dancing the polka together once more. They always made me smile and feel loved. My heart and love goes out to Julie and Jean and Mary and their families. Hold your memories in your heart and may you find strength in your family love.
All my love, hugs, and more,
Becky Lytle
