“ I have many memories of Connie, as we called him, as a cute little boy always well behaved and a friend of the family. We loved going to the lake with his family and had such good times! May he Rest In Peace, he will be missed by many but we have good memories of him as a part of our life in Roscoe and we can see his sweet smile and kind manner to all. Rita Muggli

Conrad was a good friend and faithful resident of Assumption Home. I enjoyed almost daily conversations with him and liked him very much. He always had a great attitude and a smiling, welcoming presence.....condolences to his family and may Conrad enjoy an Old Milwaukee Light in his heavenly mansion! Fr. Tom
