“ Uncle Dan was one of the most giving people I know. My sister, Andrea, her daughter, Arianna, and I were lucky enough to get to spend time with him every time he trucked on down to Tucson. He didn't mind spending a day doing chick things with us :-) he was just happy to be with family. He had such a great laugh and I am really going to miss him. I'm glad to know he is with Janet now and watching down over us, caring for us, as they both did throughout their lives. ”
