“ My deepest sympathy to all of you. Debbie was one of my best and favorite German students! She was always a hard-working, friendly, fun student. I was happy to share the experience of traveling to Europe with her. May the happy memories of her help all of you get through this difficult time.

“ From the time I met Deb in Kindergarten she had a quiet confidence, no doubt the result of being surrounded by parents and siblings who loved her absolutely. I grew up with Deb--from when she wore carefully done pig tails with red ties, to our teenaged years when we thought we were grown-up, to college when we wanted to be grown-up and then when we were actually grown-up. Unlike many of us, Deb always knew who she was and what she wanted. She was always meticulous, measured and thoughtful in a way that invited trust. To her family, you raised a really beautiful person. Thank you for sharing her with us. I'm so grateful for her friendship.
