“ The first neighbor to stop over and welcome us to our 5 1/2 Street North home on 30 October 2010 in Cold Spring, Mn...that was the very next day after moving in...always a pleasant smile on his face...we shared a love of peonies, he said they were his wives favorite flower, and were my Mothers favorite on the farm also....remember him showing his military photos to me, the picture of the Enola Gay he personally took where he was stationed during the war. We talked of our dogs we had in life, he liked my coon hound "Jack" and Jack liked him and Don even let him in his house when we visited and always leaned up tight to Don...hard to see him go when he left...fellows like him are disappearing fast...what i liked the most was his straight forward straight shooting ways.

May you rest in peace my fellow Veteran.... until we meet again.
