“ I had known Doug since being a friend and classmate with Luke! He certainly made me laugh. I still remember our trip to Duluth and the advice he gave on girls and dating in 6th grade. Wait until your 30! I miss him! I am sad as you are. With love to you all until we meet again! Love Drew Nathan

“ We met Doug when we first bought a cabin at the lake. He helped with many projects and we always felt we could trust his advice. Hard worker, strong work ethic and honest man. Enjoyed visiting with him and getting to know him. Our sympathy to you on your loss.

“ We enjoyed visiting with Doug whenever we saw him. He worked with us several times when we needed him. Always trusted his work. Remember the little league days when he coached one of the teams. Doug was kind, hard working, and had a sense of humor that popped up in our conversations with him. We will miss knowing we won't by chance see him in the cafe, in our store, or out and about somewhere. Our condolences to his family. Keeping him and family in prayers at this time.
