“ Sandi & family, I am so sorry to hear about Doug. It's so hard to find the right words at a time like this. It's been such a long time for him to suffer, now he can be at rest. It's so hard to lose a child. I remember my mom telling me she missed my sister more than my dad - At the time I was surprised, until I thought about it, then it made sense. Our prayers are with you and your family. Jean and Dennis

“ Dick and Sandi and family, Not a moment has passed since I learned of Dougs death that I have not thought about you all. Dougs suffering is over. He is now in a place where he again can run, laugh, play guitar, and live the life of a normal healthy 22 year old. It is not normal to lose a child and I can honestly say I know how you feel. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Whenever I think of Doug I will forever see his huge dimples and rosey cheeks. God Bless you all.
