“ Janice and family,

I am so sorry for your loss. it is never easy to lose anyone whether they are their is age five or ninety. your mother must have been very special and deep, place in your heart and and your minds. I don't think a mother's can never be replaced. They have an indelible done place in our lives and then in the fabric of a very being. They shall never be forgotten. She must have been a beautiful woman inside and out esp. To have such wonderful children like you all and especially Janice since I knew her well. I wish you all peace, healing, and transformation. Janice, I have been thinking about you for a very long time and really miss you a lot. have been tr ying on enough to get ahold of you to no avail. please call me 612 961 2111. we probably have both been thru so much since we. last saw each other. life just hasn't been the same without you and you are irreplaceable. I hope you and Jane and the others are okay. be well and hope to talk to you see you or hear from you soon.

My world was definitely a better place with you in it!
