“ My deepest sympathies! I too, remember the wonderful times we had in St Martin with your family. They are some of my most vivid and fond memories. Aunt Vangie & Uncle Florian treated us like more of their own kids and always made us welcome. I am glad to hear he died peacefully at home with his loved ones. Love, Nancy

“ When I think of Uncle Florian, and the entire Noll family, I am awash with a flood of warm feelings. All of you are like my second family....we spent so much time visiting with you in St. Martin and sharing our early lives.

My strongest memories of Uncle Florian are that he loved his wife and family completely, you could never get a leg up on him...he was way too fast and alert, and baseball games in the yard.

Know that my thoughts and prayers are with you all. I'm sure there's a game of pinochle getting fired up in heaven as we speak!
