“ Even though George has been gone for 7 years, he will never be forgotten. When he worked all those years for Arnold's of Kimball, he was the only partsman, anywhere, who knew a part number, and its' location, just by telling him what part I needed. He amazed me every time I went to buy some parts. He would know the exact part number, and the exact location in the store, like, Aisle 7, Box 4, on the third shelf. :) That was in the days before computer automation, too.
