“ Gilbert became a trusted friend when his son Greg married our daughter Darla. Both Gilbert and I had a great appreciation of our German heritage, and both of us could carry on a conversation in the German language. At Darla and Greg's wedding we had the great honor of singing the Schnitzel Bunk song along with the guests. The picture shared is the Man I knew and loved. A piece of advice Gilbert gave me is to not "Try to push a worn out rope up a hill", I know that is true from personal experience. Gloria and my condolence to you Gloria and family. Gil rest in the heart of Jesus .
