“ Debbie, I think of you through out my day many many times. Losing someone this precious to you is a feeling that no one knows but your yourself.

Go day by day, week by week. Time and God will ease your pain. Be strong Debbie, Gordy would want that. May he rest in peace.

“ As a child, as Kevin's little sister, I remember Gordy always with Kenny, picking up Kevin. There was something about Gordy. He was so gentle, quiet, but always smiling, he made the people around him, feel good. Your loss will never go away from this day forward. I pray, you are able to choose to allow Gordy to strengthen you, so his memories can make you feel good again. May he rest in peace and peace be sent back to you.

“ Dear Lommel Family,
I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18)
He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25;8) With deepest sympathy,

“ *Debbie,
I wish there was something I could say or do to ease your pain in your loss of Gordy. My heart & all my love goes out to you and your family.*

I found this quote in a book when Gary passed away and found it to be so true.

" When we lose someone we love, it seems that time stands still. What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why things happen, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget"
