“ We met Kay and Butch when we moved to Brookview Avenue in 1979. One of my fondest memories was seeing Butch taking neighborhood dogs for walks in the park. He was definitely a dog lover! He was a good friend and wonderful neighbor. My deepest sympathy in the death of such a kind man. I know he will be greatly missed. Mary Anderson

“ Butch was a kind and giving man. He gave his time reading to students at our school. We all looked forward to his positive wisdom. We shared many books back and forth and he love to talk about what we learned from them. I will miss his daily texts sharing a snip-it of wisdom. Prayers for the family.
