“ I only met Irmund in December. My mother is at Assumption Home and Irmund was her table mate for meals. Although he was quiet, he had a spark in his eyes and a kindness in his heart. He would always hold onto my mother's walker as she was getting up from the table--just to make sure she was steady and safe.

Then, there was the night of the "bannana toss". Irmund and my mother were laughing hysterically throughout that meal.

My condolences to the family. I may have only known him a short time, but he made my life and my mother's life more joyful.
