“ I only knew Jared a few months but he was an intelligent, sensitive, witty, unique kid. He got so animated when it came to his hobbies and interests that his enthusiasm was infectious. He was an amazing listener (like, I could rant for 30 minutes straight and he just sat and took it in). He was an avid reader/ researcher/ information sponge who loved psychology and reignited my own love for literature. He taught me some Jujitsu, and we boxed and we practiced yoga (not his strong suit). I know we was an exceptional human, and I'm a better person for having had him in my life.

“ I only knew Jared for a short time but his honesty and openness made me feel like I had known him forever. The few times we saw each other we had so much fun. His laugh was contagious and he definitely fought for what he wanted. I will never forget Jared Klein. Rest easy bud

“ Jared has such a beautiful soul, he really was a kind person and he got so involved in the things he cared about. I have countless memories that I will remember forever. I have never met somebody so set on what he wanted. He was absolutely there for the people he cared about and he always made me laugh. I will miss you forever

“ Even though he seemed quiet to most, Jared was such a goofball and could always make me laugh. He was a very intelligent person. He had a wonderful voice and I loved listening to him sing. I loved watching him play and snuggle with his cats, he had a very kind heart. He was very passionate in his hobbies and he always told me everything about them. It was heartwarming to see how excited he got over the little things. Once he had his mind set on something, he was determined to do it. He had so much potential and I know that he wanted to do great things.

We have so many memories together that I will always cherish. We had our ups and downs, but I don't regret anything that we had together. He had a huge impact on my life, and I will never forget that. Rest easy, Jared.
