“ We lived next to Jason for three years on the west side of Cold Spring, during which time he happily plowed our driveway and mowed the lawn. Jason was a man of movement: working, socializing, enjoying life, and working on projects. We moved a few years ago, as did he, but will never forget the way Jason welcomed us to the neighborhood and went out of his way to be a great neighbor. He was a very special man.

Blessings to you, Jason, on your new journey.
