“ Jean will always be remembered! I remember when our family used to come spend the weekend at your home in Eden Prairie. We had so much fun and your mom was always a great hostess. Both of your parents were always so kind and fun to be around.

A few years ago Jean called me and told me she had a dream about my son Greg who I lost in 2004. She asked if she could paint his Portrait so I sent her a picture of him. She did an amazing job and that portrait hangs in our front room. I will always remember the kindness she showed me. She was an amazingly kind person.

Hugs and prayers to the whole family.
