“ Today I just found out about your Mothers passing in June. I worked with her at the Cold Spring Guest Houses. What a sweetheart she was. She taught me how to fold fitted sheets into 12inches by 12 inches square. She was the only sane worker there Jean this message is for you. So sorry, she always had family to make her happy

*Condolences to all the family of our wonderful Jeanette. She was a faithful Mass attender at Assumption. I always complimented her on the beautiful necklace of blue beads she often wore. What a kind, happy person who will be missed greatly. Prayers and thoughts to all....

“ Of course there is coffee and donuts! My entire childhood into adulthood grandma offered coffee and donuts as a time to catch up with her family on the weekends. I try to mimic this once and awhile but nothing will compare ❤️
