“ My Mother, Gladys Tuuri, was friends with Jeanne. They played cribbage and made some trips together with other friends. I didn't know Jeanne or her family very well and the last time I saw her was at my Mom's 90th birthday celebration. I'm saddened that I'm unable to tell Gladie about Jeanne's death because Gladie no longer remembers old friends. I cannot attend the funeral tomorrow because of another appointment but please know I'm thinking about Jeanne, Brad and your family.

Sending my sympathy to Jeanne's family. Jeanne was a long-time friend, bridge player and church friend of my mother in Virginia, MN. I can hear her laugh clearly -- you always knew when Jeanne was nearby.
