“ My sincere condolences, Amy. I remember you sharing your mom's journey with me; and that it coincides with what my mom continues to go through (I was attending her care conference this morning at 10). My heart aches for you and your family. I give you prayers and wish you and your family peace.

“ Jeannie, who met me through a ministry called GMO, a part of Campus Crusade for Christ, was seeking prayer. She was having a problem with a knee replacement she had just had. I was one of the prayer ministers and as only God can do had her assigned to me, and I needed my knees replaced and had decisions to make. I prayer for her until she was back in her feet, she prayer and advised me until I had both my knees replaced. We became great friends and prayer partners. She even had me praying for Eric when he needed a job. God answered all our prayers and she was my angel 🙏 for all the time I knew her, since 2010. I know she's in heaven now, God bless you Jeannie. God bless Eric.
