Jeff was born in St. Cloud to Leander and Arnella (Krueger) Hansen on March 14, 1965. Jeff graduated with a bachelor's degree in finance from St. Cloud State University. He most recently worked at Central McGowan in St. Cloud and spent about 20 years previously working at the Schwan Company. He was gifted with the ability to connect with people, listen, and show genuine interest and care for every person he met.

The center and light of Jeff's life were his two sons, Mitchell and Max. More than chocolate, ice cream, baseball, and hockey, he loved sharing updates and stories about "the boys." Most everyone who knew Jeff knew what Mitchell and Max were up to---their schooling, travels, and adventures. He openly shared his amazement about their accomplishments, often adding "I'll never understand where they get it from," despite his obvious influence on his boys. Jeff and the boys enjoyed adventures together, including visits to baseball stadiums throughout the U.S. and checking out local food scenes. He recently enjoyed traveling to Barcelona Spain and Paris France with Max and two sisters to visit Mitchell.

Jeff's spirit was kind, gentle, and humble. He was a dedicated father, brother, neighbor, and friend; he is survived by an abundance of loved ones including his sons, Mitchell (Golden, CO) and Max (Collegeville, MN) and his siblings, Sandy of Jacobs Prairie, Jean (Don) Stock of St. Joseph, Deb (Bob) Heinen of Richmond, Tom (Donna) of Jacobs Prairie, Tammy (Tom) Moore of Royalton and Pam of St. Joseph, brother-in-law, Mike Willenbring of Jacobs Prairie, along with many nieces and nephews, in-laws and friends. He was greeted into eternal life by his parents and sister Joan Willenbring.

Arrangements are with the Wenner Funeral Home, Richmond, MN.

“ To Jeff's Family: my sister-in-law recently passed away and my wise brother -in-law gave us a gift of total wisdom regarding her unexpected passing----

He told us that God would like us to remember THE GIFT he gave us by giving us my sister-in law.

This kernel of wisdom also applies to Jeff. Jeff was A GIFT to all of those who had a chance to work with him or to talk with him. He listened, was kind, attentive, worked hard to make everything satisfactory for customers, he was interested in his customers and was just a wonderful person.

Thank you to his family for sharing him with us! Thank you Jeff for being the kind of person that makes everyone feel special. Thank you God for giving us this wonderful person to be part of our lives!
