“ We are so sorry to hear of the passing of another one of your siblings, and our cousin. Joanie used to do my hair when we had those big hairdo's, and she did a good job. Our sympathy, thoughts & prayers are with you.

“ So sorry to hear about Joanie, I just hope she is in a much better place and is pain free. We had many good times together, playing card with Teresa and Joanie, and Teresa always bidding 10 trump no matter what kind of hand she was holding. Joanie deserved a much better life than what she got, but she kept her humor and kept going. my condolences to the Reiter family.

PS

“ Tim and I have the deepest sympathy for the entire Reiter family. Losing 2 siblings in such a short time is beyond any words that could possibly comfort you. Just know that there are so many people that care for you and hope the future can bring peace and that the wonderful memories you have will make the healing process easier. Remember, although she was not a family member to us she definitely holds a special place in our hearts. There are so many memories, way to many to list that will help us through this loss. Love Penny and Tim Spoden
