

Joan L. Willenbring

September 23, 1956 - October 7, 2017

Joan Loretta (Hansen) Willenbring, 61, of Jacobs Prairie, entered eternal life on Saturday, Oct. 7, at her home surrounded by family. Funeral services and Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 14, at St. Boniface Catholic Church in Cold Spring, followed by a burial at St. James cemetery in Jacobs Prairie. Visitation will be 4-8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 13 and 8:30-9:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 14, at Wenner Funeral Home in Cold Spring.

Joanie was born in St. Cloud to Leander and Arnella (Krueger) Hansen on Sept. 23, 1956. She shared a heart and soul with her identical twin sister, Jeanie. She married Michael J. Willenbring on May 19, 1979, at St. James Catholic Church in Jacobs Prairie. Joan and Mike lived their entire married lives in Jacobs Prairie, where they raised their two sons, Jim and Bob.

She was an active member of St. James, where she served as a lector for most of her adult life and managed the raffle for the parish bazaar for many years. In addition, she was involved in St. Anne's Christian Women's Society and was a founding member of JP Quilters.

Joanie received her LPN degree from Willmar Technical College and her RN degree from North Hennepin Community College. She committed her 40-year nursing career to St. Cloud Hospital, most of that time in the float pool, before her retirement in December 2015. She cherished the opportunity to work alongside many talented and caring people and was highly respected among her co-workers.

Joanie managed breast and ovarian cancer over the span of 18 years. She was a wonder of positivity, strength, and courage to all who knew her, never measuring her life by her illness or cancer treatments. She was always caring for someone else; consistently putting others' needs before her own. She cherished quilting, biking trips with girlfriends, sisters' weekends, her, and Mike's annual vacations to Jamaica and most of all, spending time with her five granddaughters.

Joanie was a light in many people's lives and leaves behind an abundance of family and friends: her husband, Mike, of 38 years, and their sons Jim (Janet) of St. Nicholas, MN; Bob (Amanda) of Bismarck, ND and the lights of her life, granddaughters Megan, Chelsea, Olivia, Abby and Sammy, along with her sisters and brothers, Sandy of Jacobs Prairie, Jean (Don) Stock of St. Joseph, Deb (Bob) Heinen of Richmond, Tom (Donna) of Jacobs Prairie, Jeff of Cold Spring, Tammy (Tom) Moore of Royalton and Pam of St. Joseph, along with many much-loved nieces and nephews, in-laws and friends. She is preceded in death by her parents, Leander and Arnella Hansen, father- and mother-in-law Joseph and Renee Willenbring and infant grandson, Isaac Willenbring. With gratitude for all who provided care for Joanie over the years, including CentraCare Coborn Cancer Center, Palliative Care Team and Home Care and Hospice.

“ Joanie, Mike and a number of others established a friendship in Jamaica in 2009. Despite only seeing each other once a year, we all so looked forward to it. It was a time to catch up on much needed rest, share not only the funny things and our accomplishments that had happened to us through the year, but also the tough and sometimes heartbreaking issues that had occurred. The friendship came easy. We knew Joanie’s battle and her strength never failed to amaze us. Joanie passed during our Canadian Thanksgiving holiday. In a way it was very fitting as David and I are so truly thankful for having met and shared so many wonderful days and nights in paradise (Irie) with her and Mike. Mike we love you and so did she. To her children, and grandchildren - boy was she so very proud of you. Joanie was so loved and she will be missed. Rest in peace ma lady.

“ I knew Joan and Jean as I was their classmate at Rocori. Am heartbroken at this news of her passing and long illness. I always remember her with a smile on her face! My prayers will be for her family and friends. May they get some comfort and peace knowing she is with God and will suffer no more. They can hold close those wonderful memories they have of her in their hearts forever.
