“ Hi Cindy -

I just wanted to say again that I am so sorry about John. John was such a great friend to my brother Mark, they were almost like brothers. He was also a great friend to me. Both Mark and I always knew we could count on John for anything we needed. There are so many great memories we will have. The service was very nice. His friends will miss him terribly. You have a very nice family and it was nice to finally meet them.

“ Cindi and family,
I was so sorry to hear of your loss.
I'd like to share a poem I hold dear to my heart. It is by Henry Van Dyke.

I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength. I stand and watch her until at length - she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and the sky come to mingle with each other.

Then someone at my side says: "There, she is gone!"

"Gone where?"

Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.

Her diminished size is in me, not in her.

And just at the moment when someone at my side says "there, she is gone!" . . . There are other eyes watching her coming and other voices ready to take up the glad shout: "Here she comes!!!!"

That is dying.

Henry Van Dyke

Your are in our thoughts and prayers!

“ Dear Cyndi, Gunner and Jonna, I'm so sorry to hear the loss of your husband and daddy. Keep your faith strong and you will be able to get through this difficult time.

The Plan of the Master Weaver~

Our lives are but fine weavings

That God and we are prepared,

Each life becomes a fabric planned

And fashioned in His Care.

We may not always see just how

The weavings intertwine,

But we must trust the Master's hand

And follow His design,

For He can view the pattern

Upon the upper side,

While we must look from underneath

And trust in Him to guide....

Sometimes a strand of sorrow

Is added to His Plan,

And though it's difficult for us,

We still must understand

That it's He who fills the shuttle,

It's He who knows what's best,

So we must weave in patience

And leave Him to rest...

Not till the loom is silent

And the shuttles cease to fly

Shall God unroll the canvas

And explain the reason why---

The dark threads are as needed

In the Weaver's skillful hand

As the threads of gold and silver

In the pattern He has planned.

Take care and we will see you on Friday!

“ Our son John and Jonna have known each other since they were babies in the infant room at daycare. We have had small talk over the years with John at the different activities the kids have had. He was always very happy, smiling and sociable. We were shocked and saddened to hear the news. Our deepest sympathies to your family at this time.
