“ I knew Keith through hockey. He was a great defenseman who was impossible to get around. I always enjoyed our locker room chats. He was a wonderful guy and will be greatly missed. A few years back, we took a team from here in St. Cloud to Grand Forks to play in a tournament there and I remember how proud he was to show us around his old stomping grounds. I know through our conversations how proud he was of his kids, my heart goes out to them. I hope there is a clean sheet of ice up there in Heaven and you are playing hockey on it.

“ Oh, how can this be? The world is heartbroken. Keith was a wonderful friend, son, father. I am blessed in life to be a friend. I'll always remember our years together growing up. Looking up to you- literally- you were so tall! Your big heart. Your laughter, light, and ways that make you who you are will be missed beyond measure. Thank you for always being a great friend, Aric's godfather, & an all around great guy who was loved by all. You will be missed and live on in our hearts and treasured memories. Rest In Peace, Keith. <3
