“ *Kevin was my Son David's best friend at the farm, we had a lot of interaction with Kevin, I remember when his dad and mother added Kevin to their family, Jerry, and His wife were so happy and thankful to have Kevin. Kevin was one of the kindest men with many talents, and also one of the strongest. his willingness to work long hours for anyone. Please accept my family's condolences for Kevin's passing. The LORD must have had a difficult job for Kevin.

“ Kevin was an amazing person. Such a kind and generous soul. I remember when the power was out for that 20 some hours, Kevin had a tank that he filled with water so we could water the animals. He was always willing to help and just shoot the bull. He loved shooting pool. Always was a good conversation. You will be missed by many. Rest in peace my friend 🥰🙏
