“ One of my first memories of Lillian was as a child. My father Leander, and Alvina were first cousins. It must have been in the evening because I remember Lillian was doing a jig saw puzzle by kerosene lantern. We worked on it together while our parents and siblings visited and I remember how very friendly she was and that I had a good time. I was amazed at how well she could find the pieces so quickly in the lamplight. As adults we would run into each other occasionally and always have a nice time catching up. Our last conversation was last February in Teals and we talked quite awhile.

I would like to extend our deepest sympathy from the Leander and Marie Hagemeyer children.

“ Grew up with Lilly. She was our neighbor and like a sister to us. When she wasn't at our place it seemed we were at hers. Her grandma made the best Boysenberry pie. She was Godmother to our son Jeff who passed in Nov. at age 47. She is now looking out for him and I feel good knowing that God placed her in Heaven with him. Lilly will be missed by a lot. I will miss see her when I visit home
