“ My deepest sympathy to everyone.
I have many memories of my Aunt Lorraine At Lorraine and Austin's wedding, I can still remember how pretty I thought she was. I attended three of my aunts weddings. The fun at those old-tyme music wedding dances stands out as a most endearing childhood memory, for me. Lorraine (& siblings) never seemed to tire once getting to kicking up those heels out on the dance floor. I remember the laughter & the "so much fun." Lorraine always included us kids & would teach anyone the steps, who wanted to learn. When I think of her now, I still see her beautiful smile & inviting personality. Lorraine also helped solidify my faith in God. Thank you so much for being my aunt and for all the nice memories you left behind. You will be missed lovingly, beautiful Aunt Lorraine. May god be with you & May you Rest In Peace.
