“ Aunt Lydia was a positive, smiling influence in my life since I was a youngster. I always enjoyed visiting her home below the chapel. It seemed like the entrance to a "holy place". During my recent visits with Aunt Lydia at the summer family reunion at Jeannie's and Mom's 95th birthday, Aunt Lydia seemed to be at peace with the world. I hope all of your memories comfort you when you think of her. I am truly sorry for your loss. Phyllis and Bob Dennee
