“ Mark I have known you since you were a carry out boy at the grocery store. You were always so kind and so helpful. You would take time out to help anybody. We would always have good conversations. You will be deeply missed. Rest in Peace Mark.

“ For the last eight years we shared an employer. I worked days and you nights. I often stay late and help our terminal transition from day to night. You often came in early or when arriving at work, would do the same, when it was needed. People who do things, that they're not “required” to do, are seemingly fewer and farther between nowadays. At work, you were helpful. I've recalled a few of the personal triumphs you shared with me these last few days. So Mark, to where ever and however you are now, godspeed to you.

Godspeed...
