“ Oh Mom how the past year has flown by. Sunday night I picked up the phone to call you because I really needed to hear your voice and have you calm me like you always did....then I realized I didn't have a mom to call. Words cannot express how much I miss you, everything about you. I thought I had said everything that I wanted to say to you before you left us but now everyday I think of something else I want to tell you. We sometimes had our differences but you were absolutely the best mom anyone could ever have asked for and there are so many things that are just not the same without you. Please know that I love you and always will. I miss you and always will. Please smile on me from heaven and do one of your little jigs for me. Love you...Karen
