“ I remember Mary Ann as a warm and loving person. She was the center of stability in a busy family. As a kid growing up, I remember that despite her busy household, she always had a few minutes for me. "How are you doing," she would ask, and then listen to what I had to say. My wife and I are honored to have one of her paintings hanging next to one by my Dad, Arnie. Our deepest sympathy to Steve, Ron, Chris, Judy, Patty and Lynn.
