“ Dear Family and Friends of our dear Mel,

I learned only yesterday evening from our cousin, Mark Schaefer, of Sauk Centre, that Mel's funeral was yesterday. I was not aware of his passing.

But I do wish to send my condolences to you all, as Mel was also near and dear to me, as was Del. The passing of a wonderful generation! Mel was always what I called "the steady hand" in everything he did. He had such a strong, steady, even way and demeanor about himself, bringing peace and calm where ever he went.

Up to COVID, I made nearly annual trips back to Minnesota and always stopped at Mel & Del's place, and then at Mel's place after Del's passing. Their farm was an "oasis," a beautiful place in the countryside. It was always a highlight of my return visits to see Mel, the farm and everyone.

May his memory live long in our mind and hearts!

Your Cousin,

Stephen

“ Pat and family, When you hear the stories others share about your dad, may it bring an even richer understanding of how much he meant to everyone lucky enough to know him. With my sympathy, “ Mel was kind enough to come out to our property and dowse for water before we built our home back in 1987. I followed him around marking water drilling 'hot spots'. Watching him surveying the lay of the land, and having an idea where the strong veins were running was a clinic in dowsing. We stopped at a spot where two veins intersected. " Mark it, drill here, you will hit water at 100 feet". "It has a 30 foot high vein". The driller hit water at 99 feet and it was a 30 foot vein. Mel, can we pay you? Ah, just buy me a case of beer. May he rest in peace!
