“ We are sad about Merle's passing away. She was truly a wonderful sister-in-law and friend. We will miss spending time together but cherish the visits over the years. She was a very genuine, honest, intelligent person with a good sense of humor. I'm glad to have known Merle. We give our condolences to my brother Elden and all the family. Merle will be missed.

“ There probably aren't any words enough to take away the sadness right now. We will just have to hold onto the good times and memories of when we were all together with Merle on dinners out and holidays or potato dumplings we made together. And to know that Merle is in the arms of the Angel's now and at peace, til we meet again.
