Noreen Laura Muggli Carroll

1927 –2018

Noreen Carroll passed away peacefully on November 15, 2018, at Assumption Home in Cold Spring, Minnesota. She was 91.

Noreen was born to John and Elinor Muggli on October 9, 1927, in Richardton, North Dakota, the youngest of eight children. She attended College of Saint Benedict and worked in Bismarck, North Dakota, before moving to Arizona in the late 1950s. She married Eugene T. Carroll in Phoenix, Arizona, on October 28, 1961. Noreen and Gene lived on the Hopi Indian Reservation in Arizona, as well as Santa Fe, New Mexico, and Great Falls and Billings, Montana. While in Santa Fe, she earned her bachelor's degree from Santa Fe College. During their years in Billings, Noreen was very involved with the Montana Historical Society – Yellowstone County Chapter, was a faithful volunteer at St. Vincent's Hospital and also worked as a secretary specializing in medical dictation. A few years after Gene's death on November 12, 2001, Noreen moved to Dickinson, North Dakota, and in 2015 she made her final move to live at Assumption Home in Cold Spring, Minnesota.

She is survived by her two nieces and nephew and their families: Mary Ann Muggli Haws and her husband Pat, John Muggli and his wife, Lois, and Jane Muggli. Noreen was preceded in death by all her siblings, Sister Joanne Muggli, OSB, Sister Nillon Muggli, OSB, Sister Alexia Muggli, OSB, Mervin Muggli, Norbert Muggli, Fr. Julius Muggli, OSB, and Fr. Florian Muggli, OSB.

Funeral services and inurnment will take place with immediate family in June
