“ I have so many memories growing up. I went to grade school with her daughter Christin and Patti was also our troop leader for girl scouts. This comes as complete shock as I just seen her at the gas station not long ago. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ My dear Aunt Patti. I am in shock and grief that you're gone. You were an amazing and fun-loving Aunt. You taught me so much: to love hard yet be independent and tough-as-nails, to be beautiful despite flaws, generous, kids-animals-and-plants-loving, etc. You were a superb cook, talented hairdresser and makeup artist, hardworking...

MY DEAR PRETTY AUNT PATTI. I realize now that those years you lived with us in Virginia Beach may have been a turbulent time of your life, but they were a wonderful part of my life. You were like an older sister to me. You were an AMAZING Aunt. I am so grateful you spent so much time with us, and that my parents Linda Eikmeier and Vince Eikmeier let you live with us.

I will never forget your love of plants, and how they flourished all around our house after you moved in.

I will never forget your big van with the Minnesota plates and the loud air horn, driving through the neighborhood in Oceana with the side door open, yelling to invite all my friends to pile in, because Aunt Patti was taking us to the beach!

I will never forget late nights with you, falling asleep in your waterbed, surrounded by plants and stuffed monkeys, under the fishing net and sea shells and sea stars on the ceiling.

I will never forget your "itty-bitty titty committee" t-shirt and you saying if you were required to wear a bra at work, the men should be, too, because many of them had bigger tits than yours!

I will never forget washing our hair outside in the rain.

I will never forget your instant, loving, and capable care when Vince Eikmeier Jr or I had an emergency and needed help.

I got to have so many fun times with you, though my noise and exuberance "plucked your nerves" - maybe more than anyone else. I know I provoked the "wrath of Patti" more than once with my shenanigans, but I hope that you derived more comfort and stability from us than frustration from us while living with us.

As I grew to a teenager and an adult, you were back in Minnesota, and I saw you less often, you were nevertheless the same Aunt Patti when we visited, ALWAYS quick to grab me hard and not let go with your fierce hugs and non-stop love. It didn't matter how much time had gone by, or how many times I screwed up. You had a quick temper, but you were also so quick to forgive. I can't remember how many things of yours I broke. You showed your toughness and your love in equally fierce measures. Your love of your own kids and grandkids was also so evident.

As a mother myself, bringing my boys to spend time with you at your house was so special. You welcomed them with open arms just as if they were your own grandchildren.

I love you so much, and my visits to Minnesota will never be the same without you. I'm ugly-sobbing even thinking about being there without seeing you.

*I know that my grief is as nothing compared with your immediate family. My condolences go out to your children Brian Eikmeier , Baylie Eikmeier , and Chrissy and their families, as well as all your siblings (my aunts and uncles and my dad) Larry Eikmeier, Vince Eikmeier, Bern Eikmeier , Don Eikmeier , Chuck Eikmeier , Tami Eikmeier-Spanier , Mary Reilly , Susan Roche and their families.
