“ Sally and family,

You are all in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. Just remember that death is not the end and when our journey through life ends we will be reunited with all of our loved ones. Richard was a very hard worker, a man who put God and his family first in his life; What better of a man could you ask for? Richard is alive and now can be with all of you at once; even if you don't see him he can hear you, he will listen, and intercede for you. Remember love never dies and lives on. He's your husband, dad, grandfather, brother, and friend forever.

“ You are all in my thoughts and my prayers during this difficult time. Richard was a great uncle to me and I enjoyed the time that I spent with him. He worked hard for his family and he was always there when you were down and he could always put a smile on your face. One thing that calms me is that he is now in heaven with Karen. He will always be watching over you throughout your lives.
