Rosie was the light and life of our community at Assumption Home! I treasured her friendship as honest, loving and straightforward. She worked diligently and passionately for many years at our place to serve people. Rosie was an active participant in all our liturgies and we will surely miss her smiling and positive presence. May this wonderful woman rest in peace!

There are so many great memories of Rosie. She was a beautiful person, a wonderful sister-in-law, a cherished friend, I loved her like a sister. There is another angel in heaven.

We were saddened to hear of Rosie's passing, and so soon after Steve. We have so many memories working at the Nursing Home with her and hanging out in the neighborhood. Unfortunately, we are all on a family trip together, and will not be able to make it to her service. We will be thinking of all of you.
