“ *Condolences and our sympathies to all of the Schlangen family on the death of our cousin. John and I were not able to make it up for the funeral or wake but our thoughts were with you on those occasions. I remember the visitation for Bradley Stang that my Mom and I attended, and then for Reinhold. Your family says good-bye to a family member with grace and love so I am sure that farewells to Vernetta were done with the same. My first memory of her was on her wedding. I was only 8 and that satin gown and her graceful dancing impressed me so. She was a fine lady.
